

Plan to join us for our

Japanese Women's Society Foundation

55th Anniversary & Fashion Show

August 2, 2009

11:00am-2:00pm

(Doors open at 10:30 am)

Mr. Takayoshi Mizushima, President of the school will be present at the fashion show. Mr. Mizushima originally founded the school to teach Japanese women the artistic and cultural traditions of Japan in order to cultivate a sense of the arts and to develop personal potential. The esteemed school has promoted cultural interchanges worldwide and goodwill as private diplomats through what they call a "New Silk Road" for global peace.

The Japanese Women's Society Foundation will present our 55th Anniversary and Annual Fashion Show "Kokoro o Musubu-Joining Hearts and Cultures, on Sunday, August 2, 2009 at the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel, Hawaii Ballroom.

This year, we present the Hakubi Kyoto Kimono School of Japan for a once in a lifetime experience showcasing the intricate splendor of Japanese textiles fashioned into kimono and obi.

Hakubi literally means "the best, and the best of traditional kimono dressing such as Hakubi-Mai, (kimono-dressing dance), Furisode with Hana Obi Musubi, (formal kimono for single ladies with flower shaped obi, Hanayome-isho (Bridal) and Heian Ocho (Imperial) Costume. The art of Chigiri-e (torn colored paper art that resembles water colors) and Kumihimo (Japanese Braiding) will be on display.

Tickets for the fashion show and luncheon are $80, or $100 for VIP seating. For ticket information please contact Suzette Lau Hee at 524-0450, or email bobandsuzette@hawaii.rr.com
